

ALL THE FAVORITES BEATEN

CLOSING THE SHEEPSHEAD BAY RACES.

KRISHNA, RAMBLER, GONFALON, LEVANT, HILARITY AND WOOSTER THE WINNERS.

The racing at Sheepshead Bay yesterday was bewildering. On Monday it seemed that Pierre Lorillard's star was in the ascendant. Yesterday he had a horse running in every one of the contests save the steeplechase, and could not win. His two-year-old Cricket, his three-year-olds Leo and Endymion, his costly prize Drake Carter, and the speedy four-year-old Breeze, were beaten, one after another.

The first race was won on merit, and on public form by W. L. Scott's Krishna, admirably ridden by that rising young jockey Higgins. Then the remainder of the flat races afforded a most brilliant series of "dumps," and surprises. As at the last day, the ghosts will come gibbering from the shades, so in this last day's racing horses that had been beaten in every contest, or that apparently had disappeared from racing altogether, came out from retirement and won. Such animals as Levant, Rambler, Gonfalon and Hilicity carried off first prizes.

The last race was played at the Navy Yard, Brooklyn, between the Marines and the Waverly Club, the Waverly men winning by the score of 7 to 6.

Racehorses selected from among the grain and provision men at the Produce Exchange will play at Washington Park, Brooklyn, today. No admission fee will be charged, tickets being issued from the Produce Exchange.

Games were also played as follows:

In Detroit—New York, 12; Detroit, 5.

In Chicago—Chicago, 11; Philadelphia, 6.

In Cleveland—Providence, 10; Cleveland, 3.

In Washington—Wilmington, 7; Trenton, 6.

THE COMMENCEMENT SEASON.

CLASS DAY AT WILLIAMS COLLEGE.

INTERMISSION TO THE CHIEFS.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., July 1.—Professor Lewellyn Pratt, class of '32, was elected an Alumnus Trustee of Williams College this morning. An unusually large number of the alumni are present. Reunions of the classes of '34, '44, '54, '64, '74, '79 and '81 were held. President Carter reported that $120,000 had been received within the past year by legacies and gifts. Cricket assumed the lead with Kite, who had run about half a length behind Little. Little, who had been running around the lead, Krishna moved up to the head of the leader, and passed him as they came into the straight. Here McManus began to drive Little Savage with the whip, and as the three received the grand stand Little Savage passed Cricket, who had just passed him again, but could not reach Krishna, who won easily. The final name of the stakes, $1,972, was added to the total, $17,40. The winner was purchased by P. Lorillard at the auction for $2,000. A bid was entered at $1,000, this gave $3,000 each to second and third horses.

After the youngsters' contest came the handicap for beaten horses, a sweepstakes of $300, with $750 added; nine starters; P. H. McMahon's Marshall, 5 years, 100 pounds; ridden by Walker; P. Lorillard's Endymion, 3½, 102, Onley; Old Mill Stable's Hamble, 5, 90; Higgins' Jennings' Farewell, 5½, 100; Maynard's P. J. Drury's Knapp, 4, 105; Lewis' J. T. Grimes' Knapp, 4, 106; Lee's Parker-Emerson, $200; Farewell, $55; Marshall, $45; Hamdon, $25; field, $35; Books-Endymion 4 to 5; Farewell 3 to 1; Marshall 6 to 1; Hamdon 8 to 1; Rambler, 8; Krump Gun 10 to 1. A good start was made by Higgins, and the race proceeded from the grand stand. The horses, and passed him again, but could not reach Krishna, who won easily.
